

“Severe fevers occur constantly among the Indians. These maladies commonly carry off a very great number. Several missions in Lower [Baja] California have gone out of existence in the past twenty years by reason of the extinction of their Indians.”

- Excerpt (circa 1816) from Through Alien Eyes: the Visit of the Russian Ship Rurik to San Francisco In 1816 And the Men Behind the Visit