

"Tiburcio: He testified that after his wife and daughter died, on five separate occasions Father Dantí ordered him whipped because he was crying. For these reasons he fled.

Macario: He testified that he fled because his wife and one child had died, no other reason than that.

Magín: He testified that he left due to his hunger and because they had put him in the stocks when he was sick, on orders from the alcalde.

Tarazón: He declared that he had no motive. Having been granted license to go on paseo to his land, he had felt inclined to stay."
