

The [Hutu] Ten Commandments:

The Ten Commandments were published in Kangura No. 6, in December 1990, within an article entitled Appeal to the Conscience of the Hutu . . .

1. Every Hutu male should know that Tutsi women, wherever they may be, are working in the pay of their Tutsi ethnic group. Consequently, [they] shall be deemed a traitor . . .
2. Every Hutu male must know that our Hutu daughters are more dignified and conscientious in their role of woman, wife and mother. Are they not pretty, good secretaries and more honest!
3. Hutu woman, be vigilant and bring your husbands, brothers and sons back to their senses.
4. Every Hutu male must know that all Tutsis are dishonest in their business dealings. . .
5. Strategic positions in the political, administrative, economic, military and security domain should, to a large extent, be entrusted to Hutus.
6. In the Education sector, (pupils, students, teachers) must be in the majority Hutu.
7. The Rwandan Armed Forces should be exclusively Hutu. . .
8. Hutus must cease having any pity for the Tutsi.
9. The Hutu male, wherever he may be, should be united, in solidarity and be concerned about the fate of their Hutu brothers . . . The Hutu must be firm and vigilant towards their common Tutsi enemy.
10. The 1959 social revolution, the 1961 referendum and the Hutu ideology must be taught to Hutus at all levels. Every Hutu must propagate the present ideology widely. Any Hutu who persecutes his brother for having read, disseminated and taught this ideology shall be deemed a traitor.
